2017: The Year in Review

Key industry executives look at the gains and challenges faced by channel partners across the year.

Dubai - Dec 14, 2017: Repositioning after the spin-off

Since splitting from Dell in November 2016, SonicWall has achieved several key milestones and has set a record for the most number of products launched in the history of the company. SonicWall released a new partner programme, a series of channel trainings, sales and technical certifications, multi-engine sandboxing technology, email security on multi-deployment platforms, hardware, virtual and cloud services.

The number of registered SecureFirst channel partners reached 10,000 in 150 days since SonicWall became an independent company with 20% of partners new to SonicWall. The SonicWall University was launched that enables partners to address the skills gap facing small and medium-size business.
