From the balloon-filled skies of Cappadocia to the historic cities of Izmir and Istanbul, Turkey is the crossroads of East and West and a fierce contender among the world's medical tourism rankings. With practically zero waiting times and low-cost treatments across a range of specialities including transplantation, genetic testing and neurosurgery, the country's national carrier (turkishairlines.com) offers discounts to those flying in for medical reasons. Despite unrest, Turkey continues to attract health-seeking tourists who also enjoy complementary offerings at the country's natural thermal spa resorts and mud baths.

About Turkish Cultural and Tourism Office:

The Turkish Cultural and Tourism Office in Dubai is the official representative of the Republic of Turkey Ministry of Culture and Tourism. One of the main aims of the Tourism Office is to bridge the gap between cultures and foster relationships with the travel industry by organising promotional activities throughout the GCC. The Turkish Ministry of Culture and Tourism participates in travel exhibitions and conferences to position the country as a leading tourist destination. With its breath-taking views, unique historical and archaeological sites, steadily improving hotel and touristic infrastructure and a tradition of hospitality and competitive prices, it's no wonder Turkey is among the most sought-after travel destinations in the world.

The primary functions of The Turkish Cultural and Tourism Office in Dubai are:

- Supervises all promotional activities relating to Turkey in the GCC
- Liaise with travel agencies
- Organises roadshows to further promote Turkey as a destination for leisure, shopping, health, sports and invest in the MICE (meetings, incentives, conference and exhibitions) Middle East market.
